Mission

Kalliopeia is an independent private foundation dedicated to cultivating the connections between ecology, culture, and spirituality by supporting initiatives and organizations that uphold sacred relationships with the living Earth. Kalliopeia's work grows out of witnessing the suffering wrought by our separation from each other and the living Earth. We strive to respond to a global need—both timeless and urgent—that is emerging across cultures: to take spiritual as well as physical responsibility for our common home. Our initiatives honor efforts to heal this separation and build sustaining relationships grounded in reverence, respect, and reciprocity. Our current initiatives include our Grants Program, Emergence Magazine, and Global Oneness Project.
